

Scott Family Gazette

December 2009

Happy Holidays from our family to yours!

Happy holidays everyone! Our big news for 2009 is the arrival of our new baby girl, Melissa Ann Mei Yan Scott. Melissa arrived on her exact due date of Saturday, November 14 at 7:00 pm. She weighed in at 9 lbs 1 oz and was 21" in length. She was 3 oz lighter and a 1/2" longer than Kayla. In terms of Melissa's personality, we'd say that she is feisty. Her cries are very loud and piercing. Since the second day at the hospital, she has been having gas issues and has been crying after feedings. Gripe water has been very helpful in soothing her tummy problems. When her tummy is fine, Melissa is a very relaxed and cuddly baby.

The Scott family wishes you warm holiday greetings and all the best for the 2010 year.

With the expansion of our family, we felt it was time to change the name of our newsletter from the G&S Gazette. We toiled with the idea of the GSKM Gazette but it didn't sound catchy enough. So we went for the safe and humble Scott Family Gazette title.

We hope you enjoy our annual newsletter as we share our events from the past year. Merry Christmas and happy new year!

Our year in review...

Christmas 2008 was spent in Burnaby. Glen's Uncle Van from northern Alberta stayed with us during the holiday season. It was great
